Ms. Skeldon,

I am following up on the draft status report, which is due to be filed with the Court tomorrow, December 3. Attached is an updated version that reflects the fact that before the Court had ordered the parties to file a status report on December 3, it had ordered the parties to file a status report on December 15. As you'll see in this draft, DermaConcepts proposes that the next status report be due on January 15.

Please provide me with your inserts for (1) discovery and (2) settlement, and any other comments you may have by 3 p.m. today so that we can make sure this is filed with the Court on time tomorrow. Thank you.

Best,

Doug

Ms. Skeldon,

DermaConcepts does not oppose your request to extend the stay, provided, however, that if the Court grants your request, you agree to a joint motion to modify the scheduling order (attached) to account for the time lost due to the stays (i.e., we will jointly request that the court pushes all of the deadlines out another 60 days or so).

Thank you,
